WEST VIRGINIA HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS, TRUSTEES

CHARLESTON, WV – The West Virginia Hospital Association (WVHA), representing 63 acute care and specialty hospitals and health systems in West Virginia, recently elected new officers and appointed trustees for 2017-2018. Officers include:

Chair: Jeff Lilley, Chief Executive Officer, Princeton Community Hospital, Princeton;

Chair-Elect: Avah Stalnaker, Chief Executive Officer, Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital, Weston;

Treasurer: Mary Beth Barr, Chief Executive Officer, Grant Memorial Hospital, Petersburg;

Immediate Past Chair: Darryl Duncan, Chief Executive Officer, Mon Health; Morgantown; and Secretary: Joe Letnaunchyn, President and CEO, West Virginia Hospital Association, Charleston.

The WVHA, an association for hospitals and health systems, is a not-for-profit statewide organization representing 63 acute and specialty hospitals and health systems across the continuum of care. The WVHA supports its members in achieving a strong, healthy West Virginia by providing leadership in healthcare advocacy, education, information and technical assistance, and by being a catalyst for effective change through collaboration, consensus building, and a focus on desired outcomes.
